

Math

Students are:

- ★ Identifying the unit of a repeating pattern.
- ★ Extending a repeating pattern by adding on units to the pattern.
- ★ Identifying what comes next beyond the visible part of a repeating pattern.

Social Studies

- ★ Drawing April self-portraits
- ★ Visit from Nobel Prize winning scientist, Dr. Elizabeth Blackburn
- ★ Thank you to our parent chaperones for driving to the San Francisco Symphony and the Chabot Space and Science Center
- ★ Superstars: Natasha Torre, Chloe Reimer and Jennifer Surjadi

Language Arts

Students are practicing:

- ★ Sight words: four, so, many, over, all, before, our, right, come, off, by, kind, more, high, find, head, gone, over, everything and room
- ★ Sounds: Long e /e/, /ee/, /ea/, and /ie/ and Long o /o/, /oa/, /ow/ and /oe/
- ★ Adding -ing
- ★ Making predictions
- ★ Adjectives

Important Information

- ★ Friday, April 15: Spring Break begins
- ★ Monday, April 25: Classes resume
- ★ Friday, April 29: Challenge Day (No Lunch Service)
- ★ Wednesday, May 18: 1st Grade Play

Class Meeting

Class meeting topics have included:

- ★ Being kind when a peer makes a mistake
- ★ Being active listeners
- ★ Being inclusive and branching out