

RED GROUP NEWS

Val Hansel, Allison Broude

October 22, 2010

LANGUAGE ARTS

We are learning the lip-popper sisters, /p/ and /b/ and tip-tapper sisters, /t/ and /d/.

Rhyming

Handwriting

Sight words: "I" and "a"

Reading

Guided Reading

Read Alouds

Shared Readings

Journal work

MATH

Number sense:

Counting Jar
Equivalent Set

Sorting

Describing

Games:

Build it
Roll and Record

Calendar

Date
Day sequence
Months of the year

SOCIAL

Class Meeting Topics:

Meeting new friends

Meeting school community

Entering into play

Mix-it-up lunch: On Thursdays the girls will be partnered with a girl from the Red Group for snack and lunch. *If possible please don't pack nut products in your daughters' lunches on Thursdays so she can be free to sit at the No-Nut table.

Free Choice Mixers: The girls will start to spend free choice on Mondays in other color groups.

SNIPPETS:

"My dad is a really great eraser."

Student #1 "I went to a chiropractor last night."

Student #2 "Oh, I love firecrackers". #1 "Oh."

"In science I like to mix kentials".

"What time is missal (dismissal)?"

"In two hours, I am going to be sick."

"My grandma is a potographer."

CLOVER

Clover the giraffe, our traveling literacy project, will be going home with the girls soon.

MULTICULTURAL STUDIES

The girls have been learning about themselves and the length and origin of their names. They are also learning about the similarities and differences in their hair color. Come in sometime soon to take a look at the family pictures and their explanations.

